

Participation in exhibitions

November is expected to be busy with events. Herti is going to attend three big exhibitions in Europe: Intervitis, Brau Beviale and Vinitech.

From 04.11. – 06.11.2018 herti is going to participate in Intervitis at Messe Stuttgart, germany. As a leading trade fair, Intervitis Interfructa covers the entire process chain from cultivation to marketing. This biennial event presents technology for wine, juice and specialty crops. Thanks to the unique combination of trade fair, congress and machinery demonstrations, the specialist visitors also experience, in addition to world-class technology and innovations, an exchange of ideas and opinions between users, advisors and experts from science and research.

BrauBeviale will take place from 13 - 15 November 2018 in Nuremberg. This show has taken place in the Exhibition Centre Nuremberg since 1978. Small and medium enterprises and global players from Europe and the rest of the world use the creative atmosphere at BrauBeviale to develop solutions. The exhibition covers the fields of process chain of beverage production, production and marketing of drinks and beverage technology. BrauBeviale will be in 2018 the most important trade fair for the beverage industry, covering the whole spectrum of beverage production and marketing. Those who come here come to discuss, talk shop and look for concrete solutions – with a high level of personal dedication.

We'll be glad to welcome you at our stand 4-424 in Hall 4

VINITECH-SIFEL is an international trade show in the vine, wine, fruit and vegetable industries. With 20% of its exhibitors and 15% of its visitors coming from all over the world, VINITECH-SIFEL has, for several years, been considered one of the leading international platforms for future-oriented investments in the vine, wine, fruit and vegetable industries. From 20 to 22 November, Vinitech-Sifel will be confirming its status as the leading international trade show for vine, wine and fruit & vegetable professionals: a focal point for business, an international showcase for innovation and a forum for exchanges.
